

Cadets from Drayton Valley at summer camp.

Cadets From Across Nation Meet At Penhold Air Base

Canadian Forces Base Penhold is again hosting Air Cadets of Western Canada. Five hundred and seventy young men are presently going through a varied program of activities during which they will all experience flying a glider and sitting at the controls with the pilot of an Otter aircraft.

Among them are twelve cadets from No. 733 Squadron of Drayton Valley and their commanding officer Capt. W. Johanson.

Senior cadets will receive four days and nights of Bush Survival training at Camp Worthington, while others learn to become proficient drill instructors or members of the cadet band which

All cadets receive instruction from experienced officers in: field sports; swimming and water safety; target shooting; drill and model building. They also go on sight-seeing tours to Calgary Stampede, Heritage Park, St. George's Island Park, Banff, Edmonton Klondike Days and swimming tours to Sylvan Lake. During the evening cadets are free to enjoy hobbies, live entertainment, movies, and the canteen until lights out at 10 o'clock.

Twenty-five hundred cadets will attend the four camp phases. Each camp is of two weeks duration with 625 cadets at each camp. During the third camp, starting August 3rd, an exchange will occur whereby 100 cadets from Quebec will come to CFB Penhold. This type of exchange camp inaugurated during Centennial Year was such a success that it has continued each year on a reduced scale.

Thirty-four squadrons arrived by commercial airlines, rail, buses, and cars from all parts of Western Canada from Geraldton, Ontario to Vancouver, B.C.

Meeting Held To Discuss Proposed School

Members of Town Council and School Trustee Jack Tyler met with representatives of Gardiner and Jones, Architects, at a recent supper meeting to discuss the proposed new high school in Drayton Valley.

Discussion was primarily directed toward requirements of the town in adapting the auditorium area of the school for community purposes after regular classes. The architects had already approached the County School Committee regarding academic requirements and further meetings will be scheduled after a preliminary plan has been drawn up attempting to incorporate suggestions from these meetings.

The new school is being planned on the basis of $50,000 contributions toward building cost by the Parkland School Committee and the Town of Drayton Valley to provide for construction of adequate sized facilities for community use.

4-H Members Selected For Exchange Trips

One hundred and fifty three selected 4-H Club Members from throughout the province gathered at the Olds Agricultural and Vocational College on July 26th to 28th for the 1970 Provincial 4-H Selections.

The attending members took part in a two day testing program whereby 31 members were selected to represent the Alberta 4-H movement in a variety of out-of-province travel programs. In addition to the 31 major awards 29 members were selected for minor awards; most of which provide experiences within the province of Alberta.

The selected members are chosen to be representatives of the 4-H movement and ambassadors of the province at different 4-H conferences and exchange trips in Canada and the United States.

currences of tennis to baseball sized hail were noted. In other words, nearly one-third of the locations at which hail fell in July received hail one inch or more in diameter.

Many farmers saved samples of hail and these are now being collected. Some of the largest stones ever obtained for study in Alberta were picked up near Cremona from the storm on July 9th. These stones were almost spherical with a diameter of 3 1/2 inches.

Due to the large amounts of surface moisture after the heavy late June and early July rains in central Alberta, the storms were very intense and on many days radar tops were between nine and ten miles high. Computer models estimated updrafts inside some of these storms to be in excess of 100 mph.

Needless to say, with all this storm activity widespread severe damage to crops was reported.

When accompanied by wind gusts in excess of 50 mph, heavy property damage was also caused as in the case of the Viking storm on July 11th. This was the worst day of the month with an estimated total of between 300-500 square miles hit by damaging hail in several pockets, extending all the way from north of Rocky Mountain House to east of Viking.

The storms of July 20th were just as severe, but were confined to a smaller area with the main damage in the vicinity of Gull Lake and Ponoka. Other areas badly hit include the region between Rocky Mountain House and Olds-Carstairs on July 5th, and the strip between Cremona and Carbon on July 9th.

The full economic impact of the July storms will not be known until all the hailfall data and insurance claims are processed, but it will certainly run into several millions of dollars.

July Hail Causes Losses in Millions

The number of days with hail in July was below normal; however, many days were characterized by particularly severe storms. In fact, eight days were classified as major hail days by the Alberta Hail Studies Project. On each of these days, one hundred or more hail reports were obtained from farmers and in all cases the biggest stones were larger than golfballs.

Surprisingly little hail activity occurred south of Calgary, and only two days in the month produced large hail and spotty damage. It was the area between Calgary and Edmonton that bore the brunt of the storms. Nearly 1200 reports were mailed in by farmers in the Hail Project area.

Telephone surveys were conducted on nine storm days and yielded another 1700 reports, making a grand total of 2900 hail reports - the most ever obtained in July. From these reports very detailed maps can be drawn showing the complicated hailfall patterns on the ground.

The severity of the July storms shows up clearly in the large number of reports of big hail. Nearly five hundred farmers observed hail walnut size, 248 reported hail golfball size, and a record number of 112 oc-

D. V. Highlights

By Mrs. Edith Deby

The Ron Jonzon family of Grande Prairie were here recently to visit Ron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Jonzon.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Helmer Ramstad is in hospital. Get well soon. We miss seeing you around town, Helmer.

Mrs. Peter Waldin of Duncan, B.C. is spending six weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pederson.

Mrs. Elizabeth Plamondon, of Plamondon is visiting with the Lawrence Duperrons. It will be remembered that the Plamondons are among Albert's first white settlers and as well known as the contemporary family, the Lamoureux's. Mrs. Duperron is Mrs. Plamondon's daughter.

Our sympathy goes to the family of Mrs. Theresa Getzinger. Mrs. Getzinger passed away in Stony Plain last week. Several members of her family live in Drayton Valley.

For the first time in quite a while Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duckett had their five children home at one time. Cpl. Fred Duckett, Mrs. Duckett and their four children are here on holiday from Camp Borden, Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hutchinson came from Pincher Creek, and with Mrs. May Naylor, Mrs. Dorothy Domke and Miss Emily living near, a rare re-union was enjoyed. The Ducketts have nine grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kaarsemaker are justifiably proud of the academic achievements of their children this year. Neil passed with honors to Jr. High; Ann passed with honors to Sr. High and Fred Jr. finished his grade 12 with high marks and expects to enter university this fall in the field of Science.

The Lamberts who homesteaded the Law place will be remembered by many old timers. Stanley Lambert left about 1937 and sold his farm to Dan Bills. He had been back once in 1941 and now has a fine farm in the Grande Prairie district, or did, until he and his wife retired recently and went to live in town.

A wedding of local interest will be solemnized in Peterborough, Ontario when Mr. G. Willock and Miss Marianne Kaarsemaker are to be married on September 5th. This year Mr. Willock will continue his studies in medicine at the University of Alberta. Marianne has graduated in nursing at the University Hospital and will continue to work there.

Doctor: "Drink lots of water, it will keep you from getting stiff in the joints."
Patient: "But some of the joints don't serve water."

LODGEPOLE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. L. Kay have returned from a vacation to B.C. by way of Yellowhead, Prince George and Barkerville. They met fellow campers, Lloyd and Myma Tattersall who are in the Williams Lake area. They went down the Caribou Highway, through Hope, Mission, to Vancouver. They were guests of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kay of Burnaby, whose daughter Katherine accompanied them back. Master Dale Kay, son of Allan and Bernice Kay returned to Edmonton with them. Mr. and Mrs. Kay called on Mr. and Mrs. Curt Harris at Kelowna. The Tatter-sall and Harris families wish to be remembered to all their Lodgepole friends. The trip was most enjoyable, favored by good weather and beautiful camping grounds.

Mrs. Roy Fagervold and Wendy have returned from a trip to Hickson, B.C. where they visited Mr. Fagervold.

Miss Debbie Attwood accompanied relatives from Calgary on a trip to Disneyland.

Master Brian Schultz spent two weeks at Cadet Camp at Penhold.

Miss Lavonne Elliot has returned from England where she has spent a year and a half.

Klondike Wearing Off?

To a casual onlooker Edmonton's Klondike Days appears to be wearing a little thin. Before this summer Klondike garb was extremely popular but fell off badly this year along with the gold rush days decorations that previously adorned the downtown area.

Perhaps the fact that Edmonton played a very minor part in the Yukon gold rush of 1898 is beginning to sink in. A false impression has been created and the city basked in historical tradition that didn't belong to it in any way.

Edmonton, in our opinion, would have made a wiser choice in a frontier theme, rather than adopting a geographical location hundreds of miles away. Using frontier days (Regina has Buffalo Days) as a name, costumes and theme could have covered an entire historical era embracing fur traders, prospectors, police, homesteaders, cowboys, gamblers and all the colorful characters of our own western frontier.

Leave Only Your Footprints

This summer when out camping or hiking keep the following in mind:

- Remove all litter from trails and campsites - leave them better than you found them.
- Take trash home - in your pack, flatten cans and bury.
- Refrain from using non-returnable bottles.
- Smoke while only fishing or sitting - be careful with fire.
- Respect and treat the land as your own.
- Leave gates and fences as you found them.
- Obey provincial fish and game laws.
- A clean countryside is your responsibility.

LEAVE ONLY YOUR FOOTPRINTS.

Nothing to Lose?

POT. Yesterday an esoteric term of the hip, today a household word.

Reams of print have spun off its rising use yet one single, shining, inflexible fact has all but been ignored. In the name of opinion, kids have explored whether or not it creates a physical dependence; whether or not it's more hazardous than "socially acceptable" alcohol, whether or not its penalties are too stiff.

In the name of fact, now, it's time to explore some consequences. The facts are that pot IS against the law. It IS a felony.

The teenager who may feel he hasn't that much to lose can only profit by a fresh outlook from his peers. With soundly couched impact, this recent article really "dropped it on them." It appeared in the Carbon Copy, college newspaper for Frank Phillips College, Borger, Texas:

"A youth was stopped for a traffic violation. The officer recognized the odor in the violator's car. The defendant had a few joints with him.

"He was convicted of possession, a felony, and received a suspended sentence.

"Did he lose anything?"

"All he lost was the right to vote, the right to own a gun, and the right to run for public office.

"He lost the opportunity of ever being a licensed doctor, dentist, CPA, engineer, lawyer, architect, realtor, osteopath, physical therapist, private detective, pharmacist, school teacher, barber, funeral director, masseur or stock broker.

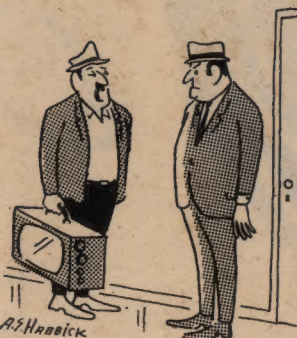

"He can never get any job where he has to be bonded or licensed.

"He can't work for the city, county or federal government.

"He can enlist in the military service, but will not have a choice of service and will possibly be assigned to a labor battalion.

"If this happened to you, would you think you had lost anything?"

--Dresser Industry's "The Group Vine"

"Good evening. I'm the new night watchman."

A feature at the convention was the immersion of 208 new ministers, the oldest member being 82 years old.

The convention was one of ten held throughout Canada this summer.

The Park Court hall was the scene of an unexpected party on July 25th when the community gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Farrell on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary.

Their daughters and sons-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rauser, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dystant and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burki were all present for the evening.

The Law Orchestra of Evansburg supplied the music for a very enjoyable evening of dancing. At midnight a delicious cold supper was served by the Gay Gatherers. ## Regular Meeting School Committee commendation for purchases to be made.

Dr. L. G. Hall, Director of School Administration of the Department of Education came to see the School Committee regarding the proposed building at Drayton Valley.

He outlined the developments in the request of statement for the need and advised that the amount of $678,045.00 would be available to the School Committee whether they build an addition to the existing Frank Maddock High School or if a new school is built on a new site. Together with the $100,000.00 pledged by the Town of Drayton Valley and the County, he felt that this could build a substantial high school set up.

RENOVATIONS DRAYTON VALLEY

In the presence of Dr. L. G. Hall the following letter from the school Buildings Board was presented to the School Committee: Drayton Valley Schools.

At a recent meeting of the School Buildings Board, recognition of need was given for renovations to the Drayton Valley Schools as follows: Elementary School, not to exceed $15,000.; present Junior High School to become Elementary, not to exceed $6,000.00; If the Frank Maddock High School, to become a Junior High School, is not to be added to, not to exceed $7,000.

It is to be clearly understood that the above recognition of need does not constitute authority to tender.

The above maximums were set on the assumption that the majority of this work could be done or supervised by your own maintenance staff. It is also assumed that these amounts will be spent on the schools and will not be transferred from school to school or elsewhere.

In the case of the F. Maddock High School, it was pointed out that, should an addition be made to this school, no renovation would be needed as all other necessary facilities are incorporated in the addition for both the Junior and Senior High Schools. It was also considered that a simpler and possibly less costly but equally effective solution to renovation, should the F. Maddock School not be added to, might be the renovation of a classroom to an administrative state of the present administrative centre for staff work areas.

It was moved and carried that the above letter be accepted for information.

It was moved and carried that the Building Committee for Drayton Valley call in the Architects and proceed immediately with preliminary planning for a new school in Drayton Valley.

It was moved and carried that it be recommended to the Department of Education that the tender of Porta Built Industries in the amount of $8,473.00 per unit for two portable classrooms be accepted.

It was moved and carried that the tender of R. McCracken in the amount of $1,600.00 for the moving of the 4 portables from Spruce Grove to Stony Plain be accepted.

It was moved and carried that the hiring of Stuart D. Smith and Gary Gylander as painters' helpers at $1.85 per hour effective July 22nd be approved. Mr. Don Gylander asked that it be noted in the records that he abstained from voting.

It was moved and carried that Mr. E. W. Hillier be delegated to inspect the items, in Mr. J. A. Orleux's teacherage, that he offers for sale and submit a recommendation to the School Committee regarding the purchase.

It was moved and carried that the Maintenance Supervisor's report be accepted.

It was moved and carried that the contract with Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of Portland for Alberta School Employee Benefit Plan for the teachers in the County be signed.

It was moved and carried that the Village of Spruce Grove be advised that their office building will not be required for classroom purposes for next year and that County equipment and supplies be moved out as soon as possible.

It was moved and carried that the School Committee engage caretakers for the Spruce Grove School and charge the wages of one caretaker to the Village of Spruce Grove.

It was moved and carried that Mr. Stuart J. Pickering be requested to audit the books and draw up a statement for the 1970 expenditures for the Edson-Stony Regional High School District No. 2. A letter was received from the Secretary of the Yellowhead School Division No. 12 advising that their Board has passed a similar resolution.

It was moved and carried that the Town of Drayton Valley be re-imbursed $350.00 for legal fees expended in the purchase of

Mrs. Sheila Brown, D.H.E.

Calling all girls interested in Fashion and Design. The Olds Agricultural and Vocational College has developed a new program in Fashion and Design Merchandising. It starts September 1st, 1970 so there isn't much time left.

The new program is designed to train young women in sales and promotion as well as personal improvement. Students who take the program for personal use rather than employment may receive a certificate after one year. Those students looking for jobs must spend 4 months between their first and second year at on-the-job training. This invaluable experience plus a two year program awards them with the Alberta Diploma in Fashion and Design Merchandise Technology.

A new emphasis is being put on retail management and merchandising courses that stress fashion trends, textiles, sewing and on-the-job training. Girls who graduate from this course will be qualified, well-informed experienced sales personnel.

Contact this office for information regarding entrance requirements or you might like to pick up an O.A.V.C. calendar.

You asked us about the new dietetic soft drinks.

The true label story is on the bottle caps and the cartons. Read carefully the products are cyclamate free but not necessarily sugar free.

Dietetic soft drinks carry a label statement which specifies whether or not they contain sugar and their calorie value.

Manufacturers of dietetic soft drinks have been permitted to use up their old returnable bottles for a while but they have been required to provide new caps and to apply special stickers on cartons. The sticker indicates the presence of sugar and the absence of cyclamates.

The accurate label information appears on the cap and not on the bottle. Facts on calorie content, presence of sugar and absence of cyclamates will be written on the cap. For the time being disregard information on the bottle itself.

Hockey Camp Deadline Nears

The Drayton Valley Summer Hockey Camp is gradually filling up with a total of 74 candidates signed in to date. Registrations are pouring in every day and the estimated attendance of 120 boys at the camp would seem realistic at the writing of this column.

Two things are notable about this year's camp registrations to date. First, older boys and younger boys are absent among the camp candidates. The age range, with one or two exceptions, is between ten and fifteen years which means that players of Mite age (8-10 years) and those in the Juvenile category (16-18 years) are sorely lacking. Secondly, approximately forty of the seventy-four candidates are from somewhere other than Drayton Valley, which sets us to wondering what has happened to the 250 odd Minor Hockey participants in last winter's program.

Only 14% of those taking part in the 1969-70 hockey program at the Civic Centre have registered to date. Last year's final enrolment from the town was about eighty candidates, or 34% of the total boys taking part in the hockey program of the previous winter. We certainly hope that this 14% count is not an indication of the final number of registrants from Drayton Valley this year. We do expect a fairly heavy late registration from candidates in Drayton Valley and District which would balance the percentage as well as bring the final camp registration up to expectations.

Here is a golden opportunity for a youngster interested in playing hockey to get a week of first class coaching and instruction from one of the great coaches of our era, Clare Drake, as you know will be in charge of the group as Director and Chief Instructor. Working under him will be a tip top staff of spec-

Boys from eight to eighteen years of age are eligible to take part. The registration fee is $30 for the week. For out-of-town candidates living accommodations are made available at very reasonable rates.

Recreation Round-up

MINOR FOOTBALL PROGRAM PROPOSED

From all indications there will be a Minor Football program here this fall. At this time it seems certain that the Drayton Valley "Little Canadian" Football League will carry on as usual throughout September and October. Football at this level will be going into its eleventh consecutive season here this year. The local league was organized in August 1960 and carried on over the years.

To be eligible to play in this league, a boy must have reached his tenth birthday on or before May 1st of the playing year and must not have reached his 13th birthday by that date. He must weigh at least 80 pounds and cannot weigh more than 120 pounds. No exceptions to this rule will be made in respect to the stated minimum age limits. In some cases, however, consideration will be given regarding a weight problem providing that it doesn't prove detrimental to overall efficient operation of the "Little Canadian" League. Some consideration will be given to maximum age limit.

It was decided last spring that no Canadian football would be played at the high school level this year. Frank Maddock High School has had a Canadian Football team for the past few years, but due to the many problems encountered especially in obtaining games with suitable teams in past seasons, the school authorities decided to drop the sport from their athletic program.

It would seem that Bantam football involving boys from 13 to 15 years of age will also have to be dropped from our community athletic program. Here again the problem is that of obtaining games throughout the season with suitable teams or getting into a league which is completely out of the question for a Drayton Valley team at this level. The only way that we might have Bantam Football here this autumn would be if we would have enough boys to form a league night here in Drayton Valley. This would mean that we would require two teams, preferably three teams from this community or district in order to make the program a reality. The numbers to form teams for such a Community League can be obtained at the "Little Canadian" level but it is most doubtful if this can be done in the Bantam category.

In the case of high school boys and those at the Bantam level it is likely that a soccer program will be offered.

The fee for "Little Canadian" football will be $3.00 for the season. This fee includes all the necessary equipment and supplies to play the game. The only exception to this is footwear. Each boy is responsible for his own footwear. It may be noted here that spikes of any type are forbidden in this league.

In "Little Canadian" football the game is gauged to the age group which it serves. The official playing rules of the game, while drawn up along the lines of Canadian Football rules are modified in certain cases to avoid any unnecessary body contact which could result in bodily injury to the boy. As an example whistles are quick on all tackles and piling on, unnecessary roughness or any illegal tactics call for very stiff penalties. It is our aim to offer a form of athletics which is beneficial, healthful, enjoyable and reasonably safe to all involved in the activity.

To make this program go, first of all, players are required, at least sixty in number, secondly we need a sufficient number of coaches for each team and thirdly we need a sufficient number of officials in order that each and every game can be played as it should be and last but not least we need the support of parents and other members of the community at the games.

Registration forms are now available at the Recreation Office. For further information or details pertaining to this program call 542-3440 or drop around at the Recreation Office.

"Please deposit three more pennies."

Much Confusion About Beef Quality Standards

It would benefit all segments of the meat industry if some of the present misconception about what constitutes good beef was eliminated, claims A.H. "Archie" Martin, meat research specialist at the federal research station at Lacombe, Alberta.

Mr. Martin, who is in charge of quality research work involving carcasses used in the station's massive carcass evaluation project, says much confusion and erroneous information exists today about beef quality.

In many respects, he points out, not even the breeder, the feeder, the meat packer or the retailer are agreed on what meat quality is, so it's not surprising that there's much confusion in the mind of the consumer. Rightly or wrongly, she has been accustomed to relating meat quality by such factors as color, appearance, texture, flavor, juiciness, tenderness and lean to fat ratio. If these "qualities" are not evident in the meat she is appraising in the retail store, or if she thinks they are costing her too much, she will purchase lower priced, competitive products.

This poses a threat to the beef industry as a whole and for this reason it is important that all segments of the trade agree soon on what constitutes quality. "Until they do agree", says Mr. Martin, "the real story of beef cannot be told to the consumer in a logical, factual and convincing manner."

Much of the current beef carcass research work at Lacombe is aimed at separating fact from fiction. For example, is it necessary to have heavy deposits of fat or marbling for beef to be tender, juicy and flavorful? Is aging a requisite for tenderness, and if so, how much aging is best? These questions beg answers because carrying cattle to a high degree of finish and providing facilities for aging beef are both costly and add to the retail price of beef.

What about meat color? Does darker colored meat offer inferior eating qualities? Apart from the so-called dark cutting beef which is found principally in bull carcasses, color was not found to be related to tenderness. Thus, the Lacombe researchers feel, there is no justification for discriminating against darker colored meat.

In tests involving meat from steers, heifers and young bulls, no evidence was found to suggest that external fatness or finish contributed in any way to tenderness. In reply to claims that fat imparts a distinctive flavor to beef, Mr. Martin says healthy muscle tissue is never fat-free. In fact, the Lacombe tests revealed that steak, with little or no visible marbling, contained about 12 per cent intramuscular fat.

Studies to observe the effect of aging on tenderness indicated that meat actually became four per cent "tougher" during the first two to three days following slaughter. From 72 hours to six days following slaughter tenderness improved by 19 per cent and a further improvement amounting to eight per cent occurred in the period from six to thirteen days.

Based on work done so far at Lacombe, Mr. Martin says youthful beef from lean, muscular carcasses and beef with little fat or marbling is as tender, juicy and flavorful as beef from highly finished, heavily marbled carcasses. And because lean carcasses yield better they are economically more acceptable to the retail trade.

It's a good thing for the beef industry that this is so, claims Mr. Martin, because it makes it possible to confidently develop pricing and merchandising systems which will encourage the production of a fast growing, muscular carcass with a minimum amount of fat. The industry needs this type of carcass, provided there is no lowering of quality, he believes.

Texas parents wait until their children are in their teens before telling them about Alaska.

the duck crop through to the flight stage, although the nesting season is delayed and prolonged compared with last year.

Mid-July surveys by Ducks Unlimited fieldmen found water conditions to be excellent almost prairie-wide. Southern Alberta is the lone exception as it has been all season. Even here, timely rains salvaged many ducks that might have been in trouble.

Brood counts revealed that the cold weather of April and May had delayed nesting in a significant segment of the mallard and pintail population. At the present time, mallard and pintail broods are already strong on the wing, particularly in Alberta and western Saskatchewan, and at the same time there are also newly-hatched broods and even active nests of these species.

It will be well into September before the ducks from these late nests can fly. In years of poor water this would be cause for concern and only a fraction of this production might survive. Not so this year. Heavy rains have been frequent, water is abundant and will last as long as the birds need it.

MAGNOLIA NEWS

Recent visitors with Orris and Dorothy McWillis were Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Pedersen of Bonnyville. Kenny is a nephew of Dorothy's.

Liz Kmyta and her family have moved to Evansburg to make their home.

Garry and Joan Morton of Provost stopped at the Storms home to pick up their two daughters this weekend. The two girls have been adding a splash of sunshine to their grandparents' days.

Orris and Dorothy McWillis motored to Nelson, B.C. to attend the wedding of Dorothy's nephew, Danny Geisler on July 25th. They also visited Orris's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fry at Kennard. Their five day trip took them homeward through the Okanagan.

Recent visitors in the district were Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown of Edmonton and Mrs. Rosnau of Stony Plain.

The Allan Walkers took in the Stampede at Edson on Sunday. I'm told it was extremely interesting.
